

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

This is clearly not in the best interests of a free democracy. How can we sell democracy to other countries when we don't have it at home. Please change your rules so that big broadcasting conglomerates can't control our information.